

Robert (Bob) E. Moritz

U.S. Chairman and Senior Partner

Bob Moritz currently serves as PwC's U.S. Chairman and Senior partner, after being re-elected by the US partners to serve a second four-year term which began on July 1, 2013. He is also a member of PwC's global leadership team, serving alongside the Global Chairman as well as the senior partners from the global network's four largest territories.

Bob has held various leadership positions during his tenure with the firm including leading the Assurance practice as well as serving as the managing partner for the New York region. He started with the firm in 1985 and was admitted to the partnership in 1995. Specializing in financial services, Bob served some of the firm's largest clients in banking and capital markets and went on to lead that practice both in New York and for the US firm.

Bob also spent some time overseas, serving a three-year tour in PwC Tokyo, where he provided audit and advisory services to numerous European and US-based financial services organizations operating in Japan. It was during this tour that Bob learned the importance of developing a global mindset. He also learned first-hand what it is like to be the minority, driving his passion and focus to create a more diverse and inclusive work environment for everyone. He is an impassioned speaker on the importance of diversity in driving a successful organization.

Bob is a graduated of the State University of New York at Oswego and is involved in a number of boards, such as the Oswego College Foundation, the Conference Board, Atlantic Council, and the Partnership for New York City. From a personal perspective, he has two college-age children, enjoys riding motorcycles, and plays the drums.
